WORSHIP

Dear Friends,

I want to take this time to offer my sincere gratitude to Fr. Barrent. He came unexpectedly to Holy Name last September when Fr. Kingsley was asked to take on the parish in Northampton. Fr. Barrent has been a tremendous help to me at Holy Name. He has been instrumental in assessing some of the larger maintenance needs of the parish. As you already know I hold 3 positions in the diocese which stretches me very thin. I could not keep up with my many responsibilities without his help. So, again, my thanks to Fr. Barrent for all he has done to help me and this parish in the last 8 months. There will be a coffee and donut social after the 10:30am and 12:30pm Masses on Sunday May 21st. This will be Fr. Barrent's final weekend in the parish. Fr. Barrent will be present after the 10:30am Mass to say goodbye to folks who want to wish him well. As of right now, I am unaware as to who will be his replacement at the parish, though I do know that there will be a new priest coming on June 1, 2023. Once I have that information, I will share it with the parish. Until then, we need to pray for the new priest and for Fr. Barrent.

Speaking of prayer, I want to remind everyone that the largest Satanic conference is taking place in Boston this weekend April 28-30, 2023. I have asked that all parishioners pray in order to combat the potential evil this poses to the souls attending the conference as well as anyone else who may be affected. We do not need to draw attention to this event nor be frightened but we do need to combat evil with good. Therefore, I invite everyone to pray the rosary each day of the conference and to make one act of sacrifice in order to counter evil with good, that the potential harm that is posed to souls may find protection from our heavenly Mother and all the saints and angels. Pray the St. Michael prayer often!! Remember, evil has no power over good and Christ is mightier than the devil. Remember too, we need to pray for one another!

God bless you!

Fr Jon

"Want to be a prayer warrior and help Our Mother achieve victory against the evil spirits at work in our world? Join the ranks of the loving and supportive members of the Confraternity of the Holy Rosary. You will be united in prayer with them and the entire Dominican Order around the world if you simply pray the 15 (or 20) mysteries of the Rosary each week. We will be having sign-ups after each Mass April 29th and 30th."

Are you familiar with the Holy Name Prayer Line?

It is a group of 30+ parishioners (called the Prayer Line Partners) who pray for anyone who is in need of prayers for any reason. It could be an illness, loss of a loved one, etc., or a special intention. We invite you to share your prayer needs by calling Ann at the rectory (733-5823). You don't even have to give us your name – just who (first name only, or you can say a woman, a man, a parishioner) the group would pray for and a very brief reason (i.e., surgery, illness, special intention, etc.) for the request. We compile a daily list (Monday through Friday) and email it to the partners who have emails, and it is called in to those who do this by phone (first person calls the second, and so on). Please contact Ann at the rectory, 733-5823, with your interest.

Grow Your Faith through a Podcast

Greetings everyone. I just wanted to share with the community that there are a lot of great resources available to help us to grow in our faith. One of those resources that has become very popular is podcasting. If you are interested in learning more about our Catholic faith, why not check out one of these catholic podcasts. Fr. Frank Furman and myself, priests of the Diocese of Springfield, each have our own podcasts. Fr. Frank's Podcast is called Tower of Ivory, and my podcast is called Bellum Christi. These can be found on Spotify and Apple Podcast. I hope you take the time to listen to them and grow deeper in your faith by gaining a deeper understanding of the teachings of our Lord Jesus Christ and His Church.

In Christ, Fr. Barrent
