WORSHIP

Dear Friends,

The term 'novena' is defined as a form of worship consisting of special prayers and services for nine successive days. It comes from the Latin 'novem' meaning - nine. It is traditionally held that the very first "novena" took place during the time the Apostles spent with Mary and the other women at prayer in the upper room after Jesus' Ascension and before Pentecost. It was common among the early Christians to have a 9-day period of mourning for the death of a loved one. From this tradition, the 9-day novena of Masses for the soul of a deceased person was established. In fact, the "novendialia" - the novena of Masses for a deceased pope - still exists today. In the Middle Ages, particularly in Spain and France, prayers and rituals were offered 9 days before Christmas as a way to signify Jesus' 9 months in the womb of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Eventually over time, various novena prayers were composed for the faithful in order that they may prepare for a special feast day, to invoke the intercession of a saint or for some sort of need.

Sadly, since the time of the Second Vatican Council, the regular practice of praying a novena as a church community or even among the lay faithful has become nearly obsolete. But yet, the discipline of praying a novena is just as important today as it was in those times when Christians felt the urgency to pray in this way. They still hold a legitimate place in our Catholic spirituality. And the reason is drawn from the Acts of the Apostles and the account of Pentecost. As the Apostles waited and prayed, then, on the last day, the Holy Spirit rushed upon them and moved out of fear to be - as Jesus told them - witnesses to His truth, goodness and love. This is what makes a novena so important even for us. The period of 9 consecutive days of prayer is meant to intensify our lives of faith, strengthen our hearts and empower us to be better and more faithful witnesses to God's love. Perhaps, on this Pentecost day, we might ask the Holy Spirit to once again empower to be better and more faith-filled witnesses to Him. May we bring back the pious practice of praying novenas in our own personal spiritual lives - or even ask a friend, a spouse, a loved one to pray it with you (this is in fact what I do - I pray with a friend of mine to keep me accountable). And here are some things to pray for in your novena:

- Soul a deceased loved one/friend
- Return of friends, family to Mass and the regular practice of the faith
- Good health for a person/s who are ill
- Reconciliation with a person you're in conflict with
- Healing from past hurts

Whatever the reason or petition you bring, remember, even if your request is not granted, the novena is meant to strengthen your faith in God and that is always a good thing!

God bless you!!

Fr. Jon

Hospital Visits and Homebound Parishioner Visits

If someone in your family is homebound or in a nursing facility, and you want to have someone from the parish visit and to give communion, please call the rectory office, 733-5823, ext. 113. Also, if someone is in the hospital and would like to have a visit by a priest, please call the same number and leave a message. We will need the hospitalized person's name, which hospital, and their cell phone or hospital phone number, if possible. If it is an emergency and someone needs a visit ASAP for last rites, call our number and press 3 (the emergency extension).

LOAVES AND FISHES

On the first Monday of every month, members of our parish are cooking and bringing American Chop Suey to South Congregational Church to serve the hungry of our city. If you can help with the cooking, please call Ann at the rectory, 733-5823. You may use your own recipe. Meals can be dropped off between 4:15 and 4:30p.m., or you are invited to stay and help serve. You'll find plenty of safe parking right in the church parking lot.

EDUCATION

CONFIRMATION is this Sunday, May 28th, at the 10:30a.m. Mass.

Grow Your Faith through a Podcast

Greetings everyone. I just wanted to share with the community that there are a lot of great resources available to help us to grow in our faith. One of those resources that has become very popular is podcasting. If you are interested in learning more about our Catholic faith, why not check out one of these catholic podcasts. Fr. Frank Furman and myself, priests of the Diocese of Springfield, each have our own podcasts. Fr. Frank's Podcast is called Tower of Ivory, and my podcast is called Bellum Christi. These can be found on Spotify and Apple Podcast. I hope you take the time to listen to them and grow deeper in your faith by gaining a deeper understanding of the teachings of our Lord Jesus Christ and His Church.

In Christ, Fr. Barrent

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

Cambios Pastorales en la Parroquia Santo Nombre.

Como se anunció anteriormente, el Padre Barrent dejará Holy Name el 21 de Mayo para discernir la vida religiosa. El Padre Jon Reardon se va a la Universidad de Creighton la mayor parte de Junio para estudiar dirección espiritual. Cuando regrese el 1 de Julio, será relevado de sus deberes como Párroco y estará en St. Mary's en Westfield para que pueda dedicar más tiempo a su papel como Director de Vocaciones y Capellán en Pope Francis Prep School. Tanto el Padre Jon como el Padre Barrent serán extrañados. Apreciamos su servicio a nuestra parroquia.

El 1 de Junio, daremos la bienvenida al Padre Jean Gregoire Tattegrain, un Sacerdote de Haití. El estará con nosotros durante todo el mes de Junio. El Padre Jean sólo estará de visita pero cubrirá la Parroquia hasta la llegada del Padre John Chrysostom Tibakunirwa quién llegará el 16 de Junio. Ambos Sacerdotes estarán juntos las dos últimas semanas de Junio hasta mi regreso a Springfield. Estoy muy agradecido con el Obispo Byrne, al Vicario General y a los Vicarios del Clero por haber trabajado duro para encontrar Sacerdotes que puedan seguir administrando los Sacramentos y cuidando de la Parroquia en mi lugar. El 1 de Julio, el Padre John Chrysostom asumirá el cargo de administrador de la Parroquia y yo comenzaré el proceso de traslado a Santa María en Westfield.

Att. Padre Jon
