WORSHIP

From Your Pastor

With today's Gospel, we begin a Four-Sunday reflection from John's narrative on Jesus' being the Bread of Life. He is both the provider and the provided. I am moved to ponder briefly the mention of the lad's meager provisions and does something great with them. If there is something of the Eucharist in these verses it is that Jesus takes our gifts, or rather that He takes the gifts we have received from Him, which we experience as so limited and insignificant and gives thanks through His perfect offering. He then empowers us to receive again our lives as gifts, and our gifts as forms of bread or that which is meant for the nourishment of others. What is any one of us among so many? There is a tension then within us about inferiority of image or self. Who am I to speak of God, or teach, or do anything in His name? The tensions of self-image and availability for doing His labors are solved by our belief that He did so much with so little. He took the breadliness of human flesh, of simple human companions, of women and men who have carried on the faith before us. It is our breadliness now for which He gives thanks and distributes us to those who await His coming in our own simple doings.

A WORD OF WELCOME TO FATHER YERICK MENDEZ

I am so pleased to let you know that Bishop William D. Byrne has assigned Father Yerick Mendez to Our Holy Name Church assisting us primarily with Latino Ministry. I encourage everyone to welcome him personally and corporately as he begins his Ministry with us. Share your various faith stories and make him feel at home at Holy Name Catholic Church. Father, thank you for embracing your call to the Priesthood. We the Staff, Volunteers and Parishioners at Holy Name Catholic Church Cordially Welcome you to be among us. May God continue to Bless you abundantly.

| 09/08/2024 | 11:30AM Confessions in Spanish; 12:30PM Mass |

His Office Hours will be Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, 9AM-5PM. (Thursdays and Fridays are his days off.) Attention Parishioners,

We received a letter from the Chancellor saying that effective immediately the Mass offering is raised to $15.00. This applies to new requests and is not retroactive.
